

On a Möbius invariant subdivision algorithm

Christian Müller (TU Wien)

Wed 11/11/2020, 15:00, online

While the classical subdivision algorithms are affinely invariant we will introduce a Möbius invariant subdivision algorithm. We will show some of its properties like circle reproduction and sphere reproductions and point out a relation to a discrete curvature notion for polygonal curves.